

Sunday 3rd May 11am Newstead Community Centre, Lyons St, Newstead Masters and Apprentices with Christos Tsiolkas Victoria Coverdale

This event offers up some master storytellers whilst giving opportunities for emerging local authors to read their work. An international superstar, Australian icon, and arguably the most famous person to ever come to Newstead, Christos Tsiolkas reads from his recent stunning short story collection Merciless Gods, whilst Victoria Coverdale (AKA Annabel Tellis) reads her witty Shane Warne love poems, and Neil Boyack releases his new array of short works amidst local writers yet to be announced. Not to be missed. Tickets through Oztix.

Sunday 3rd May 1.30pm Newstead Community Garden, Panmure St, Newstead Food Stories Lunch with Joe Dolce

Everyone knows Joe Dolce as a singer, songwriter and famously for the hit single Shaddap You Face, yet not many know Joe is a foodie and a cook. Listen to Joe's stories and songs whilst the crew at Newstead Community Garden cook his pizza recipe. This promises to be a fun closing session in beautiful Newstead Community Garden. (Note: bad weather back-up is Newstead Community Centre). A further charge is required for lunch. All proceeds from the lunch go towards the Newstead Community Garden. Tickets through Oztix.

NSST 2015 greatly appreciates the generosity of our sponsors:

Ticketing info

All tickets available online through Oztix
www.tickets.oztix.com.au/?Event=50911

Prices

1 x session ticket $10 plus booking fee

3 x session saver pass $25 plus BF
(saver pass for dedicated sessions below)

Friday Night Jazz Club – Bella Frisky
Anarchism, Activism, Asperger's and Advocacy
Food Stories – Lunch with Joe Dolce

(Note– a further contribution is required to eat lunch.
All proceeds go to the Newstead Community Garden)

6 x session whole weekend pass
(includes racecourse camping fee) $50 plus BF

Note – tickets to MTC Cronin day-poetry-workshop The Secrets of Submission through Writers Victoria, not Oztix.

NSST is a no BYO event - bar available.

Getting to Newstead

Newstead is a thriving, vibrant town in Central Victoria, located 15 minutes from Castlemaine and about 90 minutes north-west of Melbourne, easily accessible by car along the Calder Freeway. V-Line services run hourly from Southern Cross Station to Castlemaine. Castlemaine Bus Lines operates a regular bus service between Castlemaine and Maldon through Newstead.

Accommodation

Whispering Gums Motel

(official accommodation sponsor of NSST)
63 Lyons st, Newstead Phone: 03 5476 2533

Newstead Racecourse

(see 'camping' page on website for full details and pictures)
McNabb Rd, Newstead (main entrance)

Castlemaine Visitors Centre

(03) 5471 1795
www.maldoncastlemaine.com.au

NEWSTEAD SHORT STORY TATTOO

Ist 2nd 3rd MAY 2015

www.newsteadtattoo.org

Friday 1st May 7pm

Newstead Community Centre – Lyons St, Newstead
Official fringe event Clunes Booktown

Friday Night Jazz Club with Bella Frisky

Enjoy the sensational, sassy, scintillating tunes of local stellar trio Bella Frisky. Bella Frisky's cool tunes will transport you to exotic locales around the globe. From Arabian caravans to Russian villages, Tango to Tarantella and oh so sexy Frenchy songs. Italian partisans to smoky German cabaret bars, Spanish olé to Turkish dervishes and back again. A sassy opening night indeed! Purchase tickets from Oztix via the www.newsteadtattoo.org tickets page.

Sat 2nd May 9am-3pm

Community Centre Foyer, Lyons St, Newstead

Newstead Bookstore for the day

Browse, buy, read, peruse, touch, feel, smell a whole foyer full of books and zines as Newstead opens a bookstore stocked with new and used material from The Sticky Institute, Newstead Community Library, and Newstead Short Story Tattoo's own book vault. Free all day.

Christos Tsiolkas

Sat 2nd May 9am-4pm

Newstead Community Centre, Lyons St, Newstead

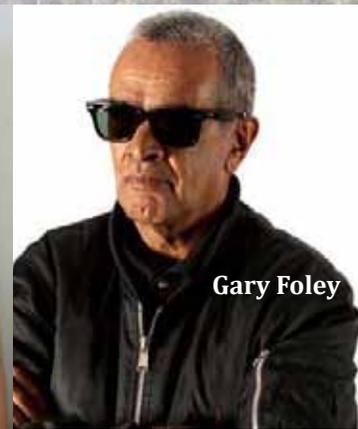

The Secrets of Submission Workshop by MTC Cronin

Presented by Writers Victoria

MTC Cronin's international reputation as a poet and writer extraordinaire has come from years of graft, experimentation, and backing her own ability into where she wishes to take her writing. Engage in her tricks of editing, her secrets of submission, and absorb her creative process, whilst learning how to become a writer and maintain your discipline. Recommended for emerging writers as well as more established writers. Please contact Writers Victoria on 03 9094 7855 or visit the festival website to purchase tickets. Tickets limited.

Clementine Ford

Gary Foley

Sat 2nd May 11am

Newstead Community Centre, Lyons St, Newstead

Going Down Swinging presents Brunch Stories

Showcasing a cavalcade of fine writers from the extensive stable of Going Down Swinging. This promises to be a writer's dream and a listener's paradise. Tickets through Oztix, check website for full details www.newsteadtattoo.org

Sat 2nd May 2pm

Newstead Community Centre, Lyons St, Newstead

Anarchism, Activism, Asperger's and Advocacy

with Gary Foley
Clementine Ford
Dr Patrick Johnson

Be a part of Australian and Indigenous history as you engage in the inaugural Gary Foley Lecture. With a theme of "Hope and History" Gary takes us through his vision, his journey, and touches on a fascinating meditation connected to hope and history whilst firebrand feminist Clementine Ford talks us through feminism now, and Dr Patrick Johnson, psychiatrist and Lacanian, talks on the notion of medical model "diagnosis" whilst pulling apart the DSM. A power-packed political line-up and a lightning rod for discussion no doubt. Purchase tickets from Oztix via the www.newsteadtattoo.org tickets page.

Sat 2nd May 7pm

Newstead Racecourse, (enter via McNabb Rd)

Official fringe event Clunes Booktown

Fire Stories

Cuddle up, listen to the crackle of the fire, and absorb master storytellers, poets and performers with their instruments and vocals whilst they engage you in a traditional storytelling session around the fire. Featuring Joe Dolce, Kirsten Krauth, Vin Maskell and Stereo Stories, Fraser McKay, Klare Lanson, Rhonda Baum, O Spaniel-Murray and an open mic. Tickets through Oztix, check website for full details www.newsteadtattoo.org (*Note –bad weather back-up for Fire Stories is Newstead Community centre). Newstead's own Super Food Van selling food on the night.